

College of Alameda

555 Atlantic Avenue • Alameda, California 94501 • (510) 522-7221 • FAX (510) 769-6019

Cecilia Y. M. Cervantes, Ph.D.
President

December 18, 2007

Kandy Kyriacou
3979 Delmont Avenue
Oakland, CA 94605

Certified Mailing #7004 2510 0000 5834 6274

Dear Kandy ,

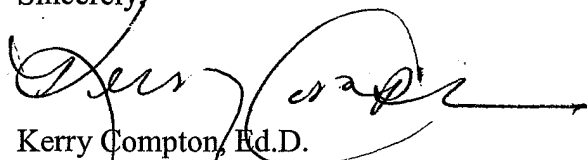

In accordance with established procedures governing action taken to effect disciplinary measures, notice of intent to suspend you from class, effective December 10, 2007 is hereby given to you for the following reasons:

Section III.A.12: . Disruptive or insulting behavior, willful disobedience, habitual profanity or vulgarity; or the open and persistent defiance of the authority of, refusal to comply with directions of, or persistent abuse of, college employees in the performance of their duty on or near the school premises or public sidewalks adjacent to school premises.

You have the right to respond to this notice, either orally or in writing, by January 3, 2008. If you wish to respond orally, call Cindy Counsell at (510) 748-2203, no later than five (5) days following your receipt of this notice to schedule a conference meeting with me.

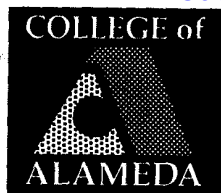

If you fail to respond within five (5) days, the Vice President of Student Services may proceed on the assumption that the charge(s) against you is (are) valid. Attached is the Student Conduct, Discipline, and Due Process Rights procedures.

Sincerely,

Kerry Compton, Ed.D.
Vice President, Student Services

cc: Jannett Jackson, Vice President, Instruction
Peter Simon, Dean, Instruction

College of Alameda

555 Atlantic Avenue • Alameda, California 94501 • (510) 522-7221 • FAX (510) 769-6019

Cecilia Y. M. Cervantes, Ph.D.
President

December 18, 2007

Ojoma Omega
1132 Waverly Circle
Hercules, CA 94547-5406

Certified Mailing #7004 2510 0000 5834 6267

Dear Ojoma,

In accordance with established procedures governing action taken to effect disciplinary measures, notice of intent to suspend you from class, effective December 10, 2007 is hereby given to you for the following reasons:

Section III.A.12: Disruptive or insulting behavior, willful disobedience, habitual profanity or vulgarity; or the open and persistent defiance of the authority of, refusal to comply with directions of, or persistent abuse of, college employees in the performance of their duty on or near the school premises or public sidewalks adjacent to school premises.

You have the right to respond to this notice, either orally or in writing, by January 3, 2008. If you wish to respond orally, call Cindy Counsell at (510) 748-2203, no later than five (5) days following your receipt of this notice to schedule a conference meeting with me.

If you fail to respond within five (5) days, the Vice President of Student Services may proceed on the assumption that the charge(s) against you is (are) valid. Attached is the Student Conduct, Discipline, and Due Process Rights procedures.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Kerry Compton'.

Kerry Compton, Ed.D.
Vice President, Student Services

cc: Jannett Jackson, Vice President, Instruction
Peter Simon, Dean, Instruction

Peralta Community College District

EXHIBIT C