Re: Your Conduct of College of Alameda

Dear Kandy,

This letter confirms our conference meeting on January 17, regarding the notice I sent to you on December 18, 2007.

We discussed the written statement of charges and the Student Code of Conduct, and I provided you with a reasonable opportunity to answer the charge(s). As reflected in the notice of charges(s), I confirmed that you might be expelled, suspended, or disciplined in lesser ways.

You claimed that you were not being disruptive and that you have the right to engage in freedom of speech and religion.

After considering the input you provided, I have decided that under Board Policy 4.40(B), you are hereby warned. You may not engage in behavior that is disruptive to the teaching and learning process during class lecture and lab or in the offices of the faculty. You understand that any further violations of the Student Code of Conduct or the terms set forth in this letter may result in further disciplinary action, including, but not limited to suspension or expulsion.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at 510-748-2204.

Sincerely,
